Online Book Review Copies Thank you for your interest in our new service. If you are an editor, book reviewer or journalist, or part of the editorial team for a magazine or journal, then you are in the right place. Right now you can access more than 12,000 English-language Springer books for review purposes. After a simple registration process you will get instant access to an online review copy of your .choosing. You will then have online access to the book for six months

Advantages at a glance

- Fast and comfortable access to our English eBooks
- No waiting for delivery of book review copies
- No limit to review copies available
- No price limit for review copies
- All English books from 2006 onwards are available for review
- Encyclopedias, handbooks and major reference works can be viewed online

Of course, you can also get something in return for your published book review. Send us your review via your profile page, and we will reply within a few days. If your review meets our criteria, you will receive a hard copy of each book you have reviewed as thanks. This only applies as long as the book is not more than two years old at the time of your first online access to it. If your readers are interested in older titles, you can also review books that were published more than two years ago. Unfortunately, we cannot send :you a hardcopy of older books. ?How do I find online review copies which interest me

If you already know the title that interests you, you can find your book quickly by doing a general search (for ISBN number, author, title) on the product pages of Springer.com. Alternatively, you can look at the subject collection pages for our newest titles. Once you have chosen your title, click on Free Online

Book Review Copy which you'll find on the right hand side. The book is then either immediately accessible online, or will shortly become available as a review copy. If a title has not yet become available, you can reserve it at any time

?How do I get access to an online review copy

Click on Free Online Book Review Copy to register in a few easy steps. Whether you are already registered with us or not, the following information will be useful

?Registered Customer

If you already have an account with Springer.com (for example, if you are receiving alerts or are a Springer author), then your e-mail address will be displayed and you can simply type in your password. Your registration data, such as your name and address, will appear. To access online books for review you will be asked for the following additional information

- The journal or medium you will be writing for
- Your job title/function within that journal/medium

After that, you will see your data again in overview and will need to confirm that you are accessing an online review copy for the sole purpose of writing a book review. You are only required to do this once when you register. As soon as you have clicked on Access Copy you will have access to your online book. If you do not have Adobe Digital Editions installed on your computer, then please wait until you receive an e-mail confirming your access data to the eBook. It will include a link to download the software for free

?Not yet registered

If you do not have an account at Springer.com you will have to register as a new customer. All you have to do is give us your name, your email address and a password. You will then be asked for an address and, in order to access online books for review, you should provide the following additional information

- The journal or medium you will be writing for
- Your job title/function within that journal/medium

After that, you will see your data again in overview and will need to confirm that you are accessing an online review copy to the sole purpose of writing a book review. You are only required to do this once when you register. As soon as you have clicked on Access Copy you will have access to your online book. If you do not have Adobe Digital Editions installed on your computer, then please wait until you receive an email confirming your access data to the eBook. It will include a link to download the software for free

Every time you log in you can see your current reviewing activities on your Book Reviewer pages, where you will find the following categories

- Review copies currently accessed •
