About HyperDictionary.com

HyperDictionary.com is a continuation of an educational project to provide free dictionary services to any user on the web. The current version of HyperDictionary.com is new and improved both in design and content. We have given the website a complete makeover to make it look trendy and attractive. We made it easier to use with results being displayed in a more user-friendly way. And, best of all, we have added new dictionaries to the website to provide our users with the content that they need. We would like to thank all the contributors who helped improve this website

As all other websites, we have our terms of use and privacy policy. A quick summary is that you can use the website for free as long as you do not abuse the service. Your privacy is important and we do our best to ensure its security
